XXIX YEAR

All who take an interest in European politics should read the Leeds Mercury's summary against Bismarck, who like Napoleon and so many other great men, were destined to make, at the end of their career, mistakes that may prove fatal to his country. The Great Chancellor holds a position that is unique in the world. He before 1890, or arrivable year 1894.

Nineteen thousand immigrants in the last 22 days of this month! This looks like being the head of Cattle Garden. Where or how are all his absorbed? It is prodigious. That every day 1000 men are in the camp and Interior this is generally supposed, or this phenomenon could not be witnessed.

The watering-cart men seem to take a special interest in drawing down to the railways and canals, the crates of tin, the boots and pantaloons of gentlemen, and goods incalculably exposed for sale at shop doors. The rascals give of examined unaccountably on their faces at

The Jockey Club banquet to Vice-President Pellegrini on Saturday night in the Florida Garden was really a superb affair. The decorations were most tasteful and ingeniously worked up into a kind of Apotheosis of the Turf, of which the Vice-President is such a distinguished patron.

Dr. del Valle, Mr. Matta and ers were among the speakers. It is dless to say that the banquet itself was that money could supply.

They must be rather hard up for stunnews in Spain, as, last month, a pa-

A close-up photograph of the book's binding. The top half shows the edges of the pages, which are a light cream or off-white color. Below the pages is a dark, textured material, likely the book's cover or a binding reinforcement, which appears to be a dark blue or black fabric with a pebbled grain. The binding is visible as a horizontal strip separating the pages from the cover.
